☀️ Light & Floral:

Perfect as an aperitif, such whiskies boast delicate, fragrant flavours, frequently with a light, crisp fruit tang and hints of green grassiness.

🍏 Fruity & Spicy:

Characterised by soft fruits, vanilla and honey flavours – often with an added spice, you'll find this variety medium-bodied – and to be enjoyed at any time.

🥜 Rich & Rounded:

Distinguished by dried fruits, dried peel and nuts, this style of whisky is rich with a deep, sweet nature. Great as a digestif.

🔥 Full-Bodied & Smoky:

Embedded with aromatic peat smoke, these intense and often powerful whiskies are produced mostly on the islands of Scotland, and make the perfect after-dinner drink.

Piper-Heidsieck

Piper-Heidsieck Cellars, Reims

This great Champagne is a very pale lemon-yellow with a generous mousse and a delicate, refined bead.

On the nose, one finds aromas of peaches, pears and ripe grapefruit overlaid with a hint of freshly baked bread, citrus peel and toasted coconut.

The finish is fine and long with lemon zest nuttiness. The wine is radiant and crisp.

Penfolds[®]

These flagship wines strive to deliver the ultimate Penfolds tasting experience. The overall detail in these wines is both heightened and focused. To sustain this level of quality, winemaking practice involves relentless thought, refinement and selection.

An Australian icon – Grange is considered one of the world's finest red wines.

From humble beginnings in the 1950s, Grange has maintained its place as Australia's most prestigious red wine over five decades. Today, it is a wine of international renown, with each vintage eagerly awaited by collectors both in Australia and overseas.

Grange represents a tradition in winemaking that is totally uncompromising. Richly textured, intensely concentrated and packed with fruity sweetness, this wine, regardless of vintage, requires medium to long-term cellaring. It develops into an immensely complex, beguiling wine that seduces the senses.

Penfolds Grange is the quality standard against which all other Australian red wines are judged.

Brown Brothers Wines

Ross Brown

Over more than 120 years, the Brown family has forged a reputation, locally and abroad, as varietal wine specialists and winemaking innovators.

Founded in 1889 by John Francis Brown, it was under the guidance of his son, John Charles Brown that Brown Brothers really established its reputation as a producer willing to experiment with innovative grape varieties.

The 3rd and 4th generations of the family continue to work towards making Brown Brothers a successful family business for generations to come.

JACOB'S CREEK™

True Character

In 1847, a young Bavarian immigrant called Johann Gramp missed the wine he used to drink in his home land. Instead of changing his habits, he decided to start growing grapes and attempt to make the wine himself. It was a way of adapting to a new country, but still staying true to his character.

What he didn't know was that when he planted the Barossa Valley's first commercial vineyard along the banks of Jacob's Creek, he was also planting the seeds of one of the most popular wine brands in the world that would be named after the waterway.

Today, Jacob's Creek remains one of the most well known, trusted and enjoyed Australian wines around the world. It delivers fresh, elegant and great tasting wines that show true varietal character.

The philosophy of Jacob's Creek is to offer a range of wines that suit all occasions.

As a company, we concentrate on two key things: The first is continuous improvement.

Every vintage we strive to improve the quality of our wines by refining our winemaking practices and continually gaining a greater understanding of our vineyards.

The second is that in everything we do, at every step of the winemaking process, from the vineyards all the way through to your glass, we all work with the final destination in mind. We do it for the most important wine critic. You.

European Chocolates

Lindt of Switzerland

The history of Lindt & Sprüngli begins in 1845, when father and son manufactured for the first time solid chocolate in their small confectionery, "Sprüngli & Son" in Zurich's Old Town.

In 1899, the company acquired the production facilities, the manufacturing secrets and the famous brand from Rodolphe Lindt and, by the same occasion, the company name was changed into Chocoladefabriken Lindt & Sprüngli AG.

During 160 years Lindt & Sprüngli has gained the reputation of being one of the most innovative and creative companies in the premium segment of the chocolate market.

Cadbury

Cadbury Factory 1880s, Bournville, UK

John Cadbury started its business in Birmingham, England, in 1824. He soon established himself as one of the leading cocoa and drinking chocolate traders. In 1854, the Cadbury brothers received the royal warrant as manufacturers of chocolate and cocoa to Queen Victoria.

Milk chocolate was first made by Cadbury in 1897, and the first Dairy Milk bar, using fresh milk in higher proportions than previous chocolate bars was launched in June 1905. Within a decade, Cadbury was the brand leader in the UK. Other products were introduced; Cadbury Flake, Crunchie and Cadbury Dairy Milk Fruit and Nut.

Today, Cadbury is the world's biggest chocolate brand, loved by millions of people in more than 30 countries. In fact, each year, enough Cadbury Dairy Milk is sold to wrap the world 4 times.

Tim Tam

An Australian favourite since 1964

Tim Tam is the world's most popular chocolate biscuit. Australians chomp their way through around 400 million Tim Tam biscuits each year – that's 35 million packs.

The Tim Tam biscuit was named after the horse that won the Kentucky Derby in 1958. Tim Tam creator, Ross Arnott, was visiting the United States at the time of the race and thought the name of the winning horse was perfect for the biscuit he was developing.

Walkers

Walkers Shortbread is an independent family company. It was founded in 1898 by Joseph Walker, and is still owned by his descendents. The company has its origins in a small village bakery in the picturesque village of Aberlour, nestling in a peaceful valley, alongside the river Spey, in the Highlands of Scotland.

Walkers has been granted the Queen's Award for Export Achievement in 1984, 1988, 1999 and 2010, the highest accolade given to British exporters – only UK food manufacturer to have won the award on four occasions.

Today the shortbread is still made to the original recipe from flour, butter, sugar and sea salt. No artificial flavourings, colourings or additives are permitted.
